

Document DE 27 12 020 was cited in the International Search Report and is considered as technical background. No English language abstract is available and the document discloses a decontamination facility for surgical instruments and the like with different processing zones for pre-wash, rinse, wash, final rinse and disinfection. The items to be decontaminated are passed through successively.